

Donna Mund

I am very new to the art of colored pencil and have a passion to bring colorful images to life. I love and appreciate the beauty in simple, ordinary, everyday things. I have learned that to take a journey in art is to follow a path that is never ending, and one will never know all there is to know or see and discover.

My drawings are an expression of my memories and experiences in life. I love the opportunity to experiment with different styles and I believe that a person should never stop growing and trying new things. There is always something new I can learn in the wonderful world of colored pencil art.
