

Dyanne Locati, CPSA

Texture, Line and Color play an important role in my artwork. The process of layering and combination of each medium is very exciting! I love to see what will happen when each addition of pigment is introduced to the support. It is putting the puzzle together and making each layer work to create unity.

Exhibitions/Awards/Publications

Locati's artwork is featured in and on the cover of 15 books, both in the US and Europe – She has written articles for magazines as well as step-by-step instructions for books. Locati has been honored with many awards including 2nd place in an International National Watercolor Society show and is privileged to have artwork selected for purchase awards including work in the collection of Oregon State University. Locati is an award-winning artist, instructor, past president of the Watercolor Society of Oregon; past president / executive vice president and convention director of the Colored Pencil Society of America; Signature member of the National Watercolor Society; Arizona Watercolor Association; Contemporary Watercolorists of Arizona and the Western Federation of Watercolor Societies.
