

Erika Kauffman

Being a big animal lover, one of my earliest pieces was an oil portrait of my dog. I dabbled in human portraiture as well and took a stab at still life, but nothing gave me as much joy as painting my sweet puppy. Shifting from oil to colored pencil a few years ago, I now combine my new favorite medium with my love of realism and furry friends.

Exhibitions/Awards/Publications

International Guild of Realism 12th Annual Juried Exhibition (2017)
International Guild of Realism 13th Annual Juried Exhibition (2018)
International Guild of Realism 15th Annual Juried Exhibition (2020)
International Guild of Realism Juried Spring Salon (2020)
International Guild of Realism Juried Spring Salon (2021)
International Artist Magazine February/March (2022)

instagram.com/azrenpup/

602-373-8633

azrenpup@gmail.com

renaissancepup.com

Copper & Bisbee, 10x10, Colored Pencil on Pastelmat

MI, 9x12, Colored Pencil & Pastel on Pastelmat

Lola, 6x6, Colored Pencil on Pastelmat

*Toby, 6x6,
Colored Pencil on Pastelmat*

Treats?! (Louis), 9x12, Colored Pencil & Pastel on Pastelmat