

Christina Rosepappa

Visual art is a source of expression and communication for me. What I can't put into words, I express in my work. I work in graphite, colored pencil and pastel. My inspiration comes from nature and people and the thread of connection to both. My goal is to inspire viewers to see deeper than the surface.

Exhibitions/Awards/Publications

- HD South
- All Art Arizona ~ Art Intersections
- The Casa Grande Art Museum
- West Valley Art Museum
- OneOhOne Art Gallery
- 2018-present - Exhibition/permanent interpretive signage display with HD South in Gilbert Arizona

[https://www.facebook.com/
C.Rosepapa](https://www.facebook.com/C.Rosepapa)

https://www.instagram.com/c.rosepapaart/

chris@rosepapacreative.com

<https://crosepapaart.com>

Tibet Man, 18x22 inches, colored pencil on paper

Resilience, 13x13 inches, colored pencil on paper

Secret Garden, 13x13 colored pencil on wood

Seasons, 16x20, colored pencil on paper