

Mary A. Carlson

My style of art would be described as realism and I especially enjoy florals. I was born in Sicily, where my mother's family grew flowers and did floral arrangements. Flowers are part of my DNA. I am especially drawn to Crotons. Each leaf seems to be a painting in itself, so vibrant and unique. I work in colored pencil and mixed media.

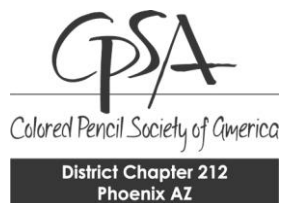

Exhibitions/Awards/Publications

- West Valley Art Museum- Coloring Outside the Lines (2018)
- The Casa Grande Art Museum- Fine Art in Colored Pencil (2019) 2nd Place
- CPSA Explore This!15 (2019) online exhibition and To the Point publication-June 2019
- CPSA International Exhibition (2019) and To the Point publication-January 2020
- Murphy Gallery – Tucson (2019)
- CPSA Explore This!16 (2020) online exhibition and To Point Publication-June 2020
- International Artist magazine June/July 2020

480-223-8008

marycaz613@gmail.com

Crotons in Puerta Vallarta, 20x12.5, colored pencil

Take Me Away, 11" x 16.5", colored pencil and marker on sanded paper

Desert Willow Delight, 11.25" x 9", colored pencil on Pastelmat

Surprise at Desert Botanical Garden, 16" x 12.75", colored pencil on Illustration Board